

Wycoff Gives $10,000 to SWOSU College of Pharmacy

03.01.2006

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Pharmacy Alumni Foundation has received a $10,000 gift from former Weatherford resident Smith Wycoff, who now lives in Eufaula.

Patti Harper, alumni and development officer for the SWOSU College of Pharmacy, said the gift is part of the College of Pharmacy FOCUS fundraising campaign.

Wycoff operated a pharmacy in Weatherford for many years until he retired. He was named the SWOSU College of Pharmacy Outstanding Alumnus in 1996. He is a member of the SWOSU Pharmacy Alumni Foundation Board of Directors and a lifetime member of the SWOSU Pharmacy Alumni Association.

Wycoff, a 1967 graduate of SWOSU, has three children and four grandchildren. He is enjoying traveling and boating during his retirement years. Wycoff said he wanted to contribute to SWOSU, because he is thankful for what the College of Pharmacy did to prepare him for a career in pharmacy.
